FIJI ISLANDS

The New Kingdom of Ethiopia Celebrates

We have received copies of the

We have received copies of the "Fiji Government Gazette," the official organ of "Cakobau Rex," or Cakobau, King of the Cannibal Islands. The contents of these papers are all official in their character, consisting of royal proclamations and notices of the passage of acts of Parliament, of the meetings of courts and of the awarding of contracts.

The official language is, we presume, Polynesian, but the organ is printed in English, and the signature of "F. W. Hennings, Acting Chief Secretary," seems to signify that English is to be dominant soon if it is not already. The "magistrates" are natives; the wardens, postmaster, judges, ministers and official secretaries, so far as we can learn from their names, are all British or American. The government offices were closed on Easter, and the King has adopted the idea of a national thanksgiving, having fixed on the 11th April, which month, in the Southern Hemisphere, corresponds to our November. The reason for thankfulness on this occasion is declared to be that "it pleased Almighty God to deliver Fiji from the perils and disasters attendant upon the visitations of hurricanes and tempestuous weather at the present season," and the day is set apart as a holiday. We have no doubt that many of the older natives would take much pleasure in the day if they could enjoy a feast of "long pig," the significant name by which they familiarly designate the human roast.

We have no details in regard to the constitution of the new kingdom, but there is a Cabinet, a Parliament and a supreme court, and with the large influence of Britons and Americans, we may feel confident that the government will never be despotic. As steamers and sailing vessels frequently touch at the Islands, their importance is rapidly increasing especially since the mail line between California and New Zealand may halt at Levuka, the chief town of the group. The population is 150,000, or about twice as large as that of the Hawaiian Kingdom.

The change in the social condition of the people within the last twenty years has been great. In 1850 the Fijians were among the most miserable savages. Cannibalism was a common practice. It was reported that one chief had eaten or helped to eat 900 persons. The old people, when unable to take care of themselves, were strangled; at the death of a chief his wives and slaves were slain; and children were to be slain by their parents, slaves by their masters, and common people by their chiefs, without any danger from law or public opinion. Murder was honorable, frequent, and universal distrust prevailed. Not half the people died by natural death. A superstitious religion added to the misery of the population, and the despotic power of the chiefs. The Fijians of our time will not be blamed for the past which they inherited from their fathers, if they will but adhere to the principles civilization.—American News.

Casey on Masonry

Greeley on Masonry.

Perhaps it would be well for some of our Masonic brethren, before casting their vote for the renowned sage of Clampanqua, to know of his persecution and onslaught upon Masonry. Horace Greeley has always been, as is to-day, the inveterate enemy to Masonry. In the days of Morgan his articles steeped in the bitterness of gall, issued with deadly hatred from his pen and ever since whenever an opportunity offered he has taken occasion to vent out his opinion on a manner that is shocking to decency, and any one has but to turn to Parson's Life of Horace Greeley, and they will find the truth, which shows that he was the principal crusader against the order that we reverence and adore. With these glaring facts before you, brethren, will you vote for a life-long enemy and defamer of your beloved institution. A. MASON.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR CORONER.

We are authorized to announce as this Parish's Choice for Coroner of the Second and Third Districts, Parish of Orleans,

Louis P. Pigeaux,
Subject to the ratification of the Republican Party of Louisiana.

Lieutenant Governor Pinch-back and Hon. W. B. Barrett returned to the city on Thursday last.

COMPLIMENTARY.—A grand concert will be given in Economy Hall on Monday evening, Oct. 14, and we have the pleasure of acknowledging receipt of a complimentary ticket.

Our popular Newsdealer, A.
Simon, has removed to No. 38 Dauphine street, where he vends all kinds of "illumination" for the mind in the shape of the best papers, pamphlets, periodicals and volumes that come to this market.

Our talented and worthy cotemporaries of the Iberville News, C.
E. Halstead and Geo. B. Loud, Esquires, have vacated the editorial chair of that paper, and James L.
Roche, Esq., has been installed therein. Mr. Roche is a good Republican—possesses a well cultivated mind and will, beyond a doubt, sustain the reputation of the News.

Telegraphic dispatches of yesterday announce the death of Hon. William H. Seward.

THE APPROACHING CONVENTION.

On Monday next the Parish Republican Nominating Convention will assemble in this city. This gathering will be one of the most important that has met here for years, and there will be brought into requisition all the sagacity, the prudence and the patriotism the gentlemen composing the Convention can gather and concentrate in their work. In the parish of Orleans, far more than in the State, the great danger menaces our party.

All the elements of opposition, the whole army of the outs, the hosts of the discomfited, and the Democracy proper and their open or covert allies, the Liberals, Reformers, Conservatives, Independents, are all endeavoring to defeat the Republican party if possible.
We believe they can all be defeated and their machinations overturned.
We believe that the Republicans are admitted to possess more claims, to the favorable consideration of the thinking, the stable, the earnest honest people of the community, than their adversaries.

We believe that it is in the power of the Republican Convention next week to select for the District Judges, men learned in the law, and divested of that partisanship which would disgrace the ermine. There are scores of such honorable gentlemen in the community, and we are confident that the Convention will do its best, and if the future career of our selections deceives us, it will be because the past is not always a sure rule to judge the future by.

For Mayor and City Administrators similar care must be taken.
The interests of the City are vast, diversified, and of great and growing magnitude; and the people who bear the burdens of taxation, are intensely interested in the nominations of the Convention. Men of acknowledged ability and integrity are needed for these positions, and from the disposition we are proud to find prevailing among a large number of the members of the Convention, we are impressed with the idea that the nominations of our Convention, for the City Council will be gentlemen who will commend themselves to the support of the majority of the voters of the Parish of Orleans.

For Members of the two Houses of the Legislation we expect the candidates to be more numerous and the contest warmer; but in this matter, the Republican party possesses the advantages of stability, integrity, and "no repudiation," over all of its adversaries. We need to send to the Legislature men who sympathize with and support in earnest and not "for the time," only, the Constitution and laws of the United States as they are; who are in favor of the civil and political equality of all men; who are in favor of retrenchment and reform. These are also to be had right from our midst. For the multitude of minor but responsible and remunerative offices, the practice of scrutiny in the above selections, will have so keenly prepared the Convention that we apprehend no danger of unworthy candidates slipping through. There are in addition to these general considerations, special claims for prominent recognition made by what are called "elements." The Irish, the German, and the French element, put in claims respectively for nominations to gentlemen of their nationality.
This is fair; and we are sure the Convention will worthily represent the catholicity of Republican Institutions by a fair and proportionate distribution of the offices.

With this work so done, let our nominations go to the people and once more they will be sustained and the reins of our local government entrusted to hands that will preserve and improve the best interests of all, and help the party of progress and enlightenment in its advancing strides.

THE RISING PYRAMID.

Ohio,
Maine,
Oregon,
Indiana,
Vermont,
Nebraska,
Connecticut,
Pennsylvania,
Rhode Island,
West Virginia,
North Carolina,
New Hampshire.

Twelve massive stones, well quarried, squared, conveyed, and piled one on the other in the construction of that Republican pyramid which is rising so fast, so successfully, and so gloriously in these United States.

One hundred and fourteen electo-rial votes for President Grant against nothing yet for Mr. Greeley, and the peculiar and striking significance and suggestiveness of the latest elections consist in the facts that Indiana and Pennsylvania going for Grant settles the Presidential question, and from this time forward the chances of Mr. Greeley must of necessity wane. The "cause" he is identified with is bad, and is falling by its own weight; while the cause that President Grant heads is essentially good and commendable, and therefore receives the support and endorsement of the majority of the voters of the country.
Another advantage is that President Grant's career in office since 1869 has been scrutinized and subjected to the severest inquiries and criticisms, and the Republican party is satisfied with it. It is open, plain, consistent. Whatever he says, or refrains from saying, he does things that demonstrate not only self poise, and individuality, but profound sagacity, comprehensiveness, and withal fidelity to party. The government of this country is now stable; it is powerful; it is at peace with the world; it is respected abroad; it is honest, and is paying the debt with all celerity. The great bulk of the people want domestic quiet, security, protection and expansion. The Democratic party on account of its tenets is incapable of affording these advantages. Turmoil and contention, precariousness and insecurity belong to it, and therefore the people say "away with it, away with it." And therefore President Grant will poll a greater vote in 1872 against Mr. Greeley than he did in 1868 against Mr. Seymour, in proportion to the growth of the Republican sentiment of the whole country.

The "Independent Republicans" have been sitting daily during the week, but laboring under some strange hallucination they have a wonderful penchant for secret sessions. What goes on in these dark recess it is impossible for the world outside to know, but it is expected that elections for sixteen offices they modestly claim for their immense constituency are going on, and sometime at or Nov. 31, the names will be announced.

The two distinguished Generals who are manipulating the concern will pardon us if, in the name of the "great American people," we don't express our more enthusiastically over their chimerical undertaking. Why don't you "cut a caper," gentlemen, and build a bridge across the river to Algiers?
Why, the child who cried for the moon had infinitely more chances of success than the Independents have for recognition and success in their claim for "conference" and "compromise" with the other parties also meeting and adjourning every day this week in New Orleans.

There are some "antirified" people at Lake Providence to whom the utterances of the Straightout Republican newspaper have been displeasing, and they have taken the law, or rather the power, so far into their own hands as to forcibly enter the printing establishment and destroy the type. We will wager a trifle that not one of the fellows that committed this outrage possesses property or pays any of the taxes that, if our contemporary does what he should, will be appropriated out of the parish treasury to recoup him for the damages done.

The Vidalia Herald claims that the Republican party will carry Louisiana next month by over twenty thousand majority. Whoop her up.

THAT FAMOUS DUEL.

Can't somebody, in these days of inventions and improvements, substitute some less objectionable, but equally efficacious method of settling personal disputes, than duelling?
It might have comported pretty well with the idea of preserving and protecting one's honor or vindicating a cause or a reputation, in the time of Henry the II of France, in whose reign it is claimed to have originated, and at whose instance it was frequently promoted; but it is not according with the idea of the present age that the execrable practice should be carried on and boasted of, notwithstanding the trouble one of our papers has taken to show that the famous Duke of Wellington, and other distinguished noblemen indulged in the pastime.

Our City papers in the early part of this week teemed with the correspondence shewing how a duel was got up between two forensic gentlemen, and how it was fought and how no-body, fortunately, was hurt. Never having fought one of those things, we don't "know how it is," but if there is anything worthy of glorification in any part, or the whole of the concern we would be glad to know where it is, and if anybody can explain what atonement is made, or what satisfaction is enjoyed, by an offended person, in exposing himself to the precisely equal risk, of a bullet, or the keen blade, or point of a sword, as the offender we would like to hear it.

The whole thing is unnatural. A man slaps your face, or insults, or trades you or some dear one, and you want the stain washed out with his blood; but the only honorable way of doing this is to get up a duel and give him another opportunity to (pile peler in ossa) by shooting you.
We don't object to the satisfaction part, but we demur to the very questionable mode of securing it.
Then there is a higher and a nob-ler consideration against it. It is essentially immoral and wrong to willfully jeopardize your own or any body else's life. The taking of life is murder under any circumstances except for the preservation of your own life, and there are no circumstances which can be urged in justification of killing a man for insult.
It is high time that the high bred, well informed gentlemen of Louisiana "stop that foolishness," and discourage, discountenance, and de-claim against the resort to deadly weapons and give an example to the less intelligent masses.

THE THREE CONVENTIONS.

This has been a convention week in New Orleans. The Mechanics' Institute has had the honor of the presence of two of these bodies.
The Independents flourished down stairs where the upper house meets, and the Liberals thundered over their heads up stairs, where the lower house meets. Which of these deserves to be upper or lower we leave to others. We know, however, that what with meeting and conferring a week has been spent and nobody hurt yet. The Democratic Convention, with its "grand, gloomy and peculiar" aspects, aspirations and assumptions keeps aloof from these crowds and na-jestically wends the uneven tenor of its way, by doing nothing. Whistling among the tombs is about as appropriate a comparison as we wot of in alluding to the sayings and doings of the caboodle of Conventionists.

The Shreveport Board of Trade, who on account of the "surroundings of Senator Kellogg, could not think of entertaining him during his recent campaign visit to that City, found no such obstacles in their way when Governor Warmoth went to Shreveport. Oh no! the doors of the Brooks House were thrown open and the "prominent citizens" delighted to honor the Governor.

Mr. Kellogg had colored men in his company and Governor Warmoth had none.

The Marksville Register is in mourning over the death of its late editor, William John Deeks, Esq.; but its sorrow doesn't blind it to the delinquency of its customers, who are notified that a period is put to the insertion of advertisements on its pages.

Separate State of Affairs in Portions of Alabama.

DEMOPOLIS, ALA., September 27, 1872.
To the Editor of The Chronicle: As a Grant and Wilson elector for the 4th Alabama Congressional district, comprising fourteen of the wealthiest counties in Alabama, as the chairman of the Fourth Republican Executive Committee, as an ex-delegate to the Philadelphia Convention, as an ex-Senator, and as a native Alabamian, I deem it my duty to inform the public, as well as the Administration, of the awful state of affairs which exist in this portion of Alabama.

On the 21st inst., in accordance with a previous notice, I proceeded to Livingston, Sumpter county, Ala., in my buggy, pulled by two fine mules, for the purpose of addressing the Republicans of said county.
I went in the daytime, by way of Belmont and Bluff Port, two interior villages of Sumpter. These two little villages were once flourishing and prosperous, but the black deeds, such as whipping, hanging, and killing of the colored people, have caused ruin, waste, and deola-tion. The store-houses have crumbled down, the dwelling houses uninhabited and decaying, the fields where once were labor and cultivation, are now grown up in weeds and broom-sage. I arrived at Livingston precisely at 11 o'clock a. m.
I found a tremendous assemblage.

Shortly after my arrival, Hon.
Charles Hay, member of Congress from the 4th Alabama district, and who has been renominated by the Republican convention, arrived. A short while after my arrival, two men, one quite a youth, the other quite advanced in age, with tremendous pistols buckled around them, approached me and said: "I'll bet you $10 that such a man can whip you." I informed them that I was not there to fight, but belonged to the Republican party, which is the party of peace and prosperity. Almost every white man had pistols buckled around him. I soon found out that I could not speak there.
Some of those present, hearing that I had expressed the opinion that I could not speak, insisted on my doing so. I ascended the stand and told a good many humorous anecdotes and stopped. I could not have spoken there.

About 6 o'clock p. m. I began my journey home, the same way I had traveled in the morning. After proceeding about fourteen miles a colored man met me, very much excited, and said, "Mars Will a crowd of white men have gone down the road to Demopolis, armed.
My family were ill, and I had to go home if possible. On arriving in Belmont I drove a short distance down the McDowell road to see an old schoolmate of mine and ascertain from him if he had heard anything of those men. He said he had not. I concluded to brave the danger. A colored man let me have two pistols. I instructed my driver, as it was very dark—the moon not then being up—to drive very slow, so should any one be approaching us, we could hear them, and prepare to fight. I passed through the "Bigbee swamp," safe, and woke up the ferryman to put us across the Tombigbee river.
I drove the buggy in the flat-boat myself, my driver assisting the ferryman. Just as we got half way over the river the flat-boat run-aground on a sandbar. I was sitting in the buggy, holding my mules. All at once there came a volley of pistol shots. One ball struck my right hand mule; I heard several hit the buggy; I was holding to my mules; one ball went through my coat, just above my hip I then jumped out, and told them to shoot me and not kill my mules.
The ferryman abandoned his post and hid flat down in the boat. I went to his post of duty and endeavored to get the flat off, the rascals shooting at me all of the time. The moon was shining all most as bright as day; I saw them and know some of them. This is no embellished tale. The buggy with pistol holes through it; the mule shot; my coat perforated, are all here to show for themselves.
Now, some will say, why did they not get in the swamp? Had I not gone down the McDowell road a short distance, and while there received a warning, they would have gotten me. Had those rascals not met, when within three or four hundred yards of me, three men, they would have gotten me. I have heard since that there were only four men who shot at me. Had I known that while the shooting was going on, they would have had a hard time and a very rough one. I counted fourteen shots. The ferryman counted seventeen. One of the party said, "No damn Radical shall speak in Sumter county!" This was the first time I had been in Sumter county since the 4th day of July, 1870. I canvassed my native county (Marango), in 1860 for Bell and Everett. My first vote was for them.

I did my duty as a Southern man in the Southern army. After the war I declared that I was a Republican. I have advocated the validity of the reconstruction acts of Congress. I have been an advocate of the amendments to the United States Constitution. I have been a strong defender of President Grant's Administration. For this I am called a traitor. I am a candidate for no office from the hands of President Grant. I support him because he is the savior of our Union and the defender of the people's rights.

The spirit of rebellion in Sumter county to-day is worse than in 1860.
The monstrous persecutions upon the colored man—upon Republicans—are as great now in Sumter as in 1871. The spirit of Ku Kluxism is only waiting for the election of old Horace Greeley. Thank God it will have to wait some time on that. I have heard of no Greeley elector being shot at or in the least maltreated. The Greeley elector for this district and I, the Grant elector, have met several times. Whenever we Republicans speak we always invite the Democrats to show up their hand. Give us a fair vote in this district; put down lawlessness and crime; let the colored people, who are all for General Grant, have a fair showing, and Alabama is sure for General Grant, for we have twelve thousand majority.

I, as a citizen, a native citizen of Alabama, identified in every particular with its interests that every other citizen is, would a thousand times rather have martial law proclaimed here than to live here as it is now.

No man who openly advocates Republican measures and a love for the Union is safe here.

So a man be a Democrat, no matter how low, how mean, how bad a character he has, he can speak and do as he wishes and nothing said—nothing done, but all is right.
I write this over my full name so there can be no mistake as to who the author is.

Grant and Wilson Electors 4th

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION, PARISH OF ORLEANS.

Rooms Republican Parish Executive Committee, Parish of Orleans, New Orleans, October 4, 1872.

At a regular meeting of this committee, held on the above date, the following resolutions, introduced by Wm. H. Green, were adopted:

Resolved, That the Parish Executive Committee of the National Republican party of the parish of Orleans do hereby call a Parish Convention to meet in the Senate Chamber, Mechanics' Institute, on Monday October 14, 1872, at 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for all parochial and municipal offices, to be voted for by the electors of the parish of Orleans on the 4th day of November next.

Resolved, That the election of delegates to said Parish Convention shall be held on Friday, Oct. 11, and shall be conducted in such manner as may be determined by the several Mother Ward Clubs.

Resolved, That the different wards shall be entitled to the following number of delegates:
1st Ward..... 9 8th Ward..... 6 2nd "..... 11 9th "..... 7 3rd "..... 13 10th "..... 8 4th "..... 15 11th "..... 9
5th "..... 10 12th "..... 3
6th "..... 6 13th "..... 3
7th "..... 13 14th "..... 1 15th Ward, 12.

Resolved, That we invite all Republicans who desire to secure an honest administration of the affairs of government to participate in the election of delegates at the primary election.

In accordance with the above a Nominating Convention is hereby called to meet on the day and date mentioned, at the place mentioned.

The credentials of delegates elected to same will be signed by the commissioners of election, as well as by the presidents and secretaries of the different Ward Mother Clubs.

Samuel M. QUERRA,
Secretary. President.

"MONARCHIST," the famous young race horse that many sportsmen remember to their cost here last year, has been the hitherto more renowned horse Harry Bassett at Jerome Park. Neither horse made extraordinary time, but the champion evidently has more "bottom" than Harry Bassett.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Louisianian.

In the endeavor to establish another Republican journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the LOUISIANIAN, propose to fill a necessity which has been long, and sometimes painfully—felt to exist. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their due, it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement, counsel and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the LOUISIANIAN a desideratum in these respects.

POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the LOUISIANIAN shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances." We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civil liberty, the absolute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit them.

Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all interests, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignancy and resentment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble State, to an enviable position among her sister States, by the development of her illimitable resources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenues, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the discharge of every legitimate obligation.

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with their own enlightenment, and the security and stability of a Republican Government.

FINAL.

By a generous, manly, independent, and judicious conduct, we shall strive to rescue our paper, from an ephemeral, and temporary existence, and establish it upon a basis, that if we cannot "command," we shall at all events "deserve" success.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE BALANCE WHEEL
OF A
WALTHAM WATCH
BEATS

4 times a second, 240 times a minute, 14,400 times an hour, 345,600 times a day, 292,00 times a week, 19,368,000 times a month, 126,144,000 times a year.

MORE IS EXPECTED OF A WATCH,
THAN ANY OTHER KIND
OF MACHINERY.

It must not only run all day, but all night; not only on weekdays, but on Sundays and Holidays. It must run hanging up or lying down—upside down or right side up. It must keep running when the wearer sits down, or stands up. When he walks or rides. In fact, it is expected to do its duty at all times, in every place and in every position.

A Genuine Waltham Watch
will fulfil all these requirements. I wound once a day, it will faithfully tick for you a hundred and twenty-six million times in a year, without even requiring fresh oil all that time.

CONTAINS 5 Spring, 9 wheels, 51 Screws, and 98 other parts making altogether 136 separate pieces.

ALL GENUINE WALTHAM
Watches have seven
Jewels.

THE EXTRA JEWELLED HAVE ELEVEN JEWEL
THE FULL JEWELLED HAVE FIFTY-SEVEN JEWELS.

Every part of a Waltham Watch is made by machinery. The machinery used in making the movement of a single watch cost over a Hundred Thousand Dollars, yet we sell these Watches, in a solid Silver Hunting Case, for $18. The same watch could not be made by hand and finished as perfectly for TEN TIMES as much.

Is interchangeable, like a Springfield rifle, that is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheels, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by putting these parts together again, without any reference to their former combination. This is a GREAT ADVANTAGE:
For, if any part of a Waltham Watch is injured we can always replace it at a Trifling Expense.

Is made with special reference to DURABILITY
Other Watches will run for a year or two, an require constant repairs; but
A Waltham Watch
WILL RUN FAITHFULLY
FOR MANY YEARS.

We sell these Watches,
IN SOLID SILVER HUNTING
CASES.....$18
IN SOLID GOLD HUNTING CASES, $70

We have prepared an ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST, which describes the various grades of Watches in detail, gives the weight and quality of the Cases, and all other information necessary for an intelligent selection.
We wish every one would send for it before ordering a Watch.

Write for it as follows:
Messrs. Howard & Co.,
No. 788 Broadway,
New York:

Please send me your Illustrated Price List of Waltham Watches, as per advertisement in THE LOUISIANIAN.

(Sign name and address in full)
WITHOUT EXPENSE,
or Refund the Money.

We have sent out over Five Thousand of these Watches upon these conditions, and have only been asked to refund the money in three cases, and not one of these was on account of dissatisfaction with the Watch, but because the parties needed the money more.

WE HAVE NO AGENTS, AND OUR PRICES
ARE THE SAME TO ALL. A RESIDENT OF ORANGE OR TEXAS CAN BUY A WATCH FROM US AND IT WILL COST HIM NO MORE THAN IF
HE LIVED IN NEW YORK. ALL THIS IS EXPLAINED IN THE PRICE LIST.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
WE DO NOT SELL
Waltham Watches in any Limitation, Gift, Plated, Oride, Filled Cases whatever (these are all other names for Brass or German Silver). The Waltham Watch is worthy
